"Build-Up" Relief Explained to Women

A simple method has saved many women a lot of suffering!

It is based on the fact that headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain are often symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition.

Help for this condition so often follows the use of CARDUI, because it usually increases the appetite and the flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion and helps build physical resistance. Usual result is less periodic distress.

Many who take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time" have found this helps ease periodic discomfort. Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

WHEAT SITUATION

The wheat situation and the need for a wheat marketing quota referendum on May 31 are not affected by the recently announced expansion of the Ever-Normal Granary to provide needed food products, John H. East chairman of the Virginia State AAA committee, declared this week.

He pointed out that, in contrast to the need for more pork, dairy and poultry products, the nation and the world have more wheat than is needed. As a result, United States wheat farmers still need measures which maintain income, protect soil resources, and safeguard adequate reserves. The new development of the Ever-Normal Granary, he said, simply demonstrates the national farm program's flexibility in meeting any farm problem, whether it is one of increasing needed supplies or handling surpluses.

With a record carryover of 380 million bushels of wheat and a large crop soon ready for harvest, Mr. East said this country has 1,250,000,000 bushels of wheat in sight for the coming year. This is enough wheat to take care of United States needs for nearly two years.

The world wheat picture is much the same. There is a market for only one bushel out of every three for sale. He pointed to Canada as an example of what wheat farmers generally face. Canada has enough wheat over and above her own needs to furnish Great Britain a two-year supply.

In this emergency all farmers have definite responsibilities, Mr. East said. Marketing quotas and acreage allotments furnish wheat cotton and tobacco growers added protection. The program recognizes that a sound agriculture is essential to a strong nation, especially during this emergency. After the emergency all farmers will need the protection of the farm program if they are not to suffer from falling prices and surpluses as they did after the First World War.

TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS UP

A total of 27,865 persons were charged for traffic violations last year in Virginia. This represents a gain of 9,836 more than in 1939, it was announced by Colonel M. S. Bates, director of the division of motor vehicles.

The activity of State Police included 1,630 persons arrested for drunken driving; 7,188 for reckless driving; 7,497 for speeding; 250 for hit and run; 1,086 for improper license; 130 for driving after their permits had been revoked and 730 for improper lights. The remaining number of arrests were made up of minor violations.

Rigid traffic law enforcement will be continued, it was pointed ou by Colonel Battle. Authough an addition of twenty-five men to the State Police Force has been made, there are not enough men to take care of the traffic on state highways, he said.

"Build-Up" Important Protector of Women

A weak, undernourished condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get a foothold; thus leads to much of woman's suffering from headaches, nervousness, and other periodic discomfort.

CARDUI'S principal help for such distress comes from the way it usually stimulates appetite; increases flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion; helps build energy, strength, physical resistance to periodic pain for many.

Another way, many women find help for periodic distress: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!
